OCCUPY WALL STREET GOES GLOBAL

Is the Wheel of Fortune Completing its Revolution Warning of a Paradigm Shift in Politics?

I have been warning that there is a serious generational problem emerging where the youth are suffering from unemployment rates that reach staggering levels between 30% to 50% in many countries and this is not just minorities. This is especially true in Southern Europe. In my teens, a friend of mine and I used to hop on planes all the time and head for Europe. Student passes were only $50 at the time. We spent more on the rental car and hotels than the airfare. We flew to Rome and as I was driving toward the Roman Forum when we saw a protest marching around the Colosseum with probably 5,000+ demonstrators all waving communist flags. We were stunned. Because of the brainwashing of the times, we high-tailed it out of there as quickly as possible running in fear that we would be discovered as capitalist Americans and killed on the spot. That was my first confrontation with Marxism. It was certainly not the last. Protests can get out of hand if the grievances are ignored as we are doing now. In China, the minister Chao Cuo (? - 154BC) under emperor Ching-ti (Liu Ch'i)(157-141BC), was regarded as corrupt judge and his introduction of 30 new laws created in hard times such outrage that the protesters dragged him out and executed him in his judicial robes in the town marketplace during an economic meltdown. The term Black Friday comes from the Panic of 1869 when protesters in NYC dragged bankers from their office and hung them in the streets forcing the government to send troops.

The Occupy Wall Street movement is turning viral thanks to the corruption in New York City, the refusal to protect the economy by regulators, and a political system that is brought to you by your local friendly New York market manipulators. The protestors have stormed Goldman Sachs drawing graffiti inside their halls in Milan and the image New York having screwed the world continues to grow as Wall Street is being blamed for everything rather than the corruption of a select few. Many protesters are vowing to stay until change takes place. Some Republicans are calling this "Anti-American" because it targets bankers and Wall Street and that is being anti-capitalist. This is showing the danger in not listening to the signs of the times. If you ignore these people, it will get much worse.

Not only did WikiLeaks expose the lies behind the curtain among countries diplomatically, it exposed just how little respect there is for the people and the obsession to retain power at all costs. The Global Financial System is collapsing before our eyes, but politicians are desperate to resist reform because it would not be government brought to you by xyz anymore. Instead, they are arresting the youth and even NYPD ran down one of their lawyers showing just how bad NYC has become as police view anyone who disagrees with government is now the enemy of the state (NYPD denies it took place). This gives meaning to Thomas Jefferson's Tree of Liberty letter where he said this tree is nurtured with the blood of tyrants and patriots alike.

The government simply refuses to fix the problems and the protesters lack the ability to articulate what the problem is to get their message out. Youth around the globe are getting madder than hell and they are not going to take it anymore, as they use to say. Politicians, as always, think they can bullshit their way out of everything. They are not taking this movement seriously at all and sooner or later the protesters will figure out the problem is government, not stock brokers! The mainstream "conservative" press wants to paint the protesters as dirty-evil-nut-jobs (part of the great unwashed) or unemployed derelicts that don't count for much in society and should be rundown, imprisoned, killed, and just ignored. Nobody listens to the right-wing press other than diehard conservatives so they only preach to the choir just as the far left socialists love the idea of confiscating all private property of the rich. You see, they are not real communists since they just want other people's money for themselves, not for the "commune." Meanwhile, the press offers nothing on this issue but criticism. This is the same attitude that creates acts of terrorism. People have a point of view and to just refuse to listen only enrages them even more and runs the risk of turning them toward violence. What we so desperately need is a middle ground voice to step forward and save the day. It just does not look like there is any voice of reason left that can see through both sides and lead us in our desperate time of need.

With the slogan "From Tahrir Square to Times Square," the Occupy Wall Street movement has escalated into demonstrations in over 1,000 cities across the globe in 78 countries on October 15th that included more than a 100 US cities from coast to coast and every continent except Antarctica. This was incredible organization. In New York City and in Washington, DC, America has displayed its intolerance for free speech as historically has always been the case. Besides blinding girls with pepper-spray directly in their eyes, some 74 were arrested in NYC by police when attempting to block thousands of marchers behind barricades in the Times Square. In the evening, hundreds of protesters then converged upon Washington Square Park in Greenwich Village. Just as the police broke up Coxley's Army protest by arresting Coxely for walking on the grass, police arrested 14 for violating the park's curfew after midnight. Another 24 were arrested after they entered a nearby Citibank where they were simply trying to close their accounts en masse. Citibank admitted they called police. In Washington, they used pepper-spray directly in the eyes of the youth and arrested one for throwing his shoe at police.

The protest in Rome turned violent and it should be no surprise since unemployment among the youth is in excess of 40%. One banner read "People of Europe: Rise Up!" Thousands marched in Rome and the government responded by sending in the riot police who fired tear gas and water cannons trying to break-up the group. The youth wore masks and smashed bank windows and ATMs. The riot police merely invoked a confrontation as the youth hurled rocks, bottles and Molotov cocktails at police. According to Italian sources, another protest in Milan stormed into the office of Goldman Sachs. They drew graffiti on corridor walls before they were chased out.

Julian Assange Speaks to Crowd in London

Thousands marched in London as some 4600 on Facebook vowed to show up to march on the London Stock Exchange and some 500 established an encampment outside St. Paul's Cathedral after a day of protest in the financial district. Similar encampments are now reported cropping up all over Britain and some 200 tents have been pitched just outside the Royal Bank of Scotland's Edinburgh headquarters according the reports from the BBC.

The French protesters coordinated their demonstration in Paris with the G20 finance chiefs' meeting in the city to pretend they are actually doing something. Hundreds had marched from the Belleville to the city hall and thousands marched in numerous cities all across France in response to government austerity plans. Politicians just do not understand that these policies of austerity in the middle of hard times is not merely kicking someone when they are down, this is the SAME policy that set the stage for the rise of Hitler in Germany because they insisted upon punishing the people after World War I. Those policies led to similar discontent and class warfare that targeted the “rich” bankers who happened to be Jewish and the whole thing escalated from there. It did NOT begin as Get the Jews just for being Jewish. The connection was with the bankers initially, and then store owners with Kristallnacht November 9–10, 1938. That too began as get the rich.

Tens of thousands flooded streets across Germany. In Berlin, 20,000 marched on the Federal Parliament, while some 5,000 gathered in front of the European Central Bank building itself in Frankfurt. Marches were also reported in Munich, Hamburg, Hannover, Cologne, Leipzig and Stuttgart. It is the same message – we are the 99%. This has been amazing global coordination.

Thousands marched in Madrid's Puerta del Sol. Similar numbers also came out in Barcelona, Seville, Valencia and Malaga demonstrating not just solidarity with the decline in the global economy, but there is incredible synergy taking place worldwide for political reform. Also in Athens there were several thousand who rallied outside the parliament building under the slogan "Down with the government-EU-IMF" which was a clear reference to budget cuts imposed on Greece by the European Union and International Monetary Fund that are more likely to lead to revolution by brain-dead politicians imposing austerity to support bond holders.

Hundreds also marched in Brussels, Vienna, Bucharest and Prague, where an intense stand-off emerged when police attempted to bar protesters from marching on Prague Castle, the Czech Republic's presidential seat of power. In the former Yugoslavia, there were also hundreds of protestors reported in Belgrade, Sarajevo and Zagreb as well as the Montenegrin capital of Podgorica where the entire national population is just 600,000.

Occupy Wall Street has gone viral creating a CONTAGION that is truly remarkable. In Toronto, a protester has a sign playing on the speech of Ronald Reagan in Berlin to Russia, "Tear Down This Wall." Now the "wall" has become "Wall Street." Historically, there are at least seven other instances of a viral like CONTAGION that swept beyond the borders for dramatic political change.

- 1) The first was 509-508BC when Rome overthrew its Tarquin kin giving birth to the Roman Republic that spread within one year giving birth to Democracy in Athens.
- 2) The next was the first Civil War where the people cheered Julius Caesar and the corrupt oligarchy that controlled the senate as we have today, fled, and were defeated ushering in ultimately the Imperial Age where representative government was seen as too corrupt.
- 3) 3rd Century collapse of the Roman monetary system that produced a monetary reform and a shift in religion from paganism to Christianity.
- 4) The dawn of capitalism and the end of feudalism following the Black Death that brought back wages and set in motion the collapse of feudalism.
- 5) Then there was the Protestant Reformation that was effectively a rebellion over the corrupt political process of appointing popes, cardinals, bishops, and priests by kings so they could control the religion. The Protestant Reformation was a CONTAGION that swept Europe.
- 6) The collapse of Monarchy-Age of Enlightenment that gave birth once again to Republican forms of government starting with the American Revolution followed by the French Revolution.
- 7) This was followed by the wave of Communism/Socialism that took the world by storm beginning with the Russian Revolution 1917 and took the entire world in just two cycles of 8.6 years (17.2) culminating in 1934 with the rise of FDR, Hitler, and Mao.
- 8) Then there was the start of this collapse that began in 1989 with the fall of China and the Berlin Wall finally on November 9, 1989 (1989.8575). Again, 17.2 years from that target brought us to the 2007.05 just a few weeks from the precise high in real estate 2007.15.

We are in this Seventh stage a dramatic political change. The Global Financial System is collapsing thanks to the corruption that began with market manipulators bent upon creating the perfect trade. When Solomon Brothers got caught red handed manipulating the US Treasury Auctions that is when the takeover of government began. I was invited to a special IMF Dinner paid for by Republic National Bank/Edmond Safra at the National Gallery in Washington, DC to try to get me to join in the manipulation that was intended to gain control of all commodities in Russia. When I refuse to join them in their manipulations and warned them that Russia would collapse, instead of seeing this as a far more sophisticated global model, they accused me of "Manipulating the World Economy" because they lost blaming me and judging me by their own standards – I must have had more influence than them. What they did not like was our investigation keeping track of all the market manipulations they were up to.

In March 1999, I stood up in our Seminar in Tokyo, Japan at the Imperial Hotel and warned the Japanese that the yen was being targeted. I said:

"We will look at specific forecasts shortly, but at this point the Japanese yen has been targeted by hedge funds particularly for the March 1999 period because many of the Japanese companies repatriate capital simultaneously and then move it all back out in April. The hedge funds have nothing else to do. They have lost Europe as a trading vehicle. Latin America has floated currencies and they are looking for guaranteed trades. This is why they are moving into the yen. ..."

There have been aggressive short positions placed on the yen by some of the big hedge funds. In our special report written a few weeks ago we mentioned that one of the funds lost 15%. That has now been reported publicly in the Wall Street Journal so I suppose I am free to mention that it was a George Soros fund. He took a very large bet on shorting the dollar. Many people were looking for a test of par again and that effort was immediately erased once the yen broke above 116. Volume at that point was largely short covering up to the 123.5 area. This is a reflection of how big the positions have become, again due to the euro. So bets are increasing. There is another hedge fund still aggressively short the dollar. They would probably account for the move up to the 130 area in a matter of a few days – and we are talking about billions of dollars. They have been bragging to some people in New York that they were going to target the Japanese corporates by trying to force the dollar down to make the Japanese repatriate at the highest possible price and then reverse their trade in early April to force the dollar up to in turn force the corporates into the opposite extreme. Obviously some of these traders are now in a very difficult position, but now they must target the Japanese corporate community. They are running out of third world countries to attack, they have lost the euro and they are only interested in what they perceive to be guaranteed trades.”

When Alan Cohen, Executive Vice President and Head of Global Compliance for Goldman Sachs and

Tancred Schiavoni
Partner
O'Melveny & Myers LLP

Tancred Schiavoni, Partner of O'Melveny & Myers seized Princeton Economics, not only did they grab all my personal files right down to family photos they seem to have destroyed along with my personal library, all the evidence I collected documenting 15 years of market manipulations. I had complained to the court, but of course courts in New York City only rule in favor if the government and banks. This is precisely the conduct that has destroyed our way of life – protecting the manipulators at all costs. I publicly stated on the record that the evidence they were seizing was gathered as a journalist under the First Amendment and documented every instance of global market manipulations that I believe have brought us to the brink of an international revolution and meltdown today. NOT a single mainstream press would report anything disparaging about government or what Cohen and Schiavoni were demanding. Neither Bloomberg News nor the New York Times would report what was going on. Others have tried to fight the manipulations such as GATA. But NY controls everything including the press. Here is the public record of my protest not reported by any NY press.

“The ... tapes... we made as a journalist, so to speak. I did a number of pieces and monitored a significant effort by a number of investment banks and fund managers who attempt to organize together in manipulating markets. I wrote extensively about several cases on that, and I made tapes to back up myself in support of that.

These are tapes that are, again, I do not see where they are particularly relevant to this particular case, your Honor. They have significant implications for a number of well known players and investment banks on the street that probably do reveal criminal behavior, but that does not necessarily involve this case. They are things that I wrote about. It is well documented that I was exposing the silver manipulations that were – went by a number of firms including Republic Bank. The CFTC even contacted me personally for information in that investigation and as well as that led to the Bank of England getting involved into the investigation.” (Tr; 2/7/00, p4-5)

It is NOT Wall Street that is to blame. It is a select group of people who are not great traders; they just want to rig the game. The “Club” was lining pockets to keep the loans going from the IMF to Russia so they could buy their bonds and earn 30% interest RISK FREE! When Russia collapsed, that took down Long-Term Capital Management in 1998. The Fed bailed them out to simply cover the losing position they owed to guess who? That way they bailed out a hedge fund, not the bankers. Then there was the disaster of the Mortgage Backed Securities. They ensured government would pick up that loss as well. If you want to pretend to be a trader that never loses, do you have to take the whole world down with you? Of course they want to label this a CONSPIRACY THEORY to discredit it, but did not Warren Buffett have to come to the rescue of Solomon Brothers because they manipulated the US Treasury Auctions? So obviously some manipulations were going on and the brought to you by NY press will NOT expose! Freedom of the Press was NEVER intended to refuse to print what some pay not to be printed. Not a single mainstream press would dare investigate this issue.

The protests have engulfed 78 countries. Every major country has seen its Occupy Wall Street demonstration. In Stockholm, Sweden there were signs reading “Global Change Now” while in Brussels the sign read “Take the Street.” Even William Cohan who wrote House of Cards has called for the closure of the SEC because they secretly destroyed the evidence gathered on the banks that would have shown criminal activity. With government brought to you by the highest bidder, it is not a mystery why people are rioting on a global scale when there is NO regulation in New York and the politicians are so in debt, they dare not investigate the people that sell their bonds for them. So we got what other people paid for! <http://www.bloomberg.com/news/2011-08-30/one-more-reason-to-shut-sec-and-start-over-commentary-by-william-d-cohan.html>

In South Korea, about 600 converged on Seoul's city hall, changing the location of the protest at the last minute after police banned the rally. The signs were again the same as in New York claiming they are the 99%. In Tokyo, some 200 gathered in Hibiya Park on the other side of town away from the Meiji financial district. Hibiya Park is historically a forum for expressions of social discontent in Japan and it is safely out-of-the-way.

In Taipei, Taiwan, several hundred gathered outside the Taipei World Financial Center also reflecting the rising unemployment problem among the youth. In Hong Kong, about 200 gathered at the Exchange Square Podium in the city's central business district. In Jakarta, Indonesia, some two dozen people with many wearing masks had gathered near the US embassy to protest. In the Philippines, there was also a protest march against the US embassy in Manila. Signs there called this "US imperialism" and "wars of aggression" that are destroying the economy. Is anyone paying attention?

The hope is this will simply blow over. But the resentment to the corruption that has inflected the entire global economy is endangering our future and risks leading to far more terrorism all over protecting a few in New York that will destroy society and places us on the brink of another major political paradigm shift.

In Hong Kong they appeared in mass with signs calling banks a cancer and Free the People. The point is not whether these signs are correct, the point is what people BELIEVE that carries the day. As the monetary system in Rome collapsed during the 3rd Century AD, people prayed to the gods during that economic crisis for help. Those in power blamed the Christians saying that the gods were mad that so many had turned their back on them. This resulted in the worst persecutions in history for it was seen as a way to restore the economy and retribution for people losing everything. Others argued that the economy collapsed because they prayed to false pagan gods that did not exist and that is why their prayers went unanswered. Economic collapses of this nature can change even religion. It was from this economic chaos that Constantine emerged and his victory led to Christianity becoming the state religion all because of an economic meltdown! Events as we are witnessing today on a global scale are incredibly important economically and socially. Dismissing them as uninformed will not solve anything.

In Amsterdam, they appeared with signs more on point “DEBT IS A TRAP.” In Australia, some 800 gathered in Sydney's central business district, chanting “Human need, not corporate greed.” In Australia, again they are talking about this 1% as if the super-rich have anything to do with this mess. There were also protests in several other Australian cities that included 1,000 gathering in Melbourne. In New Zealand there were hundreds who marched to Occupy Queen Street in Auckland and Civic Square in Wellington. On the opposite side of the globe in South Africa, some 80 people gathered at the Johannesburg Securities Exchange. The police down there also tried to suppress free speech declaring the gathering illegal. Protest also appeared in Nairobi, Kenya.

South America was certainly not excluded. Mexico saw hundreds gathering under the capital's towering Monument of the Revolution. Hundreds marched to the border city of Tijuana. In South America, hundreds marched in Rio de Janeiro (Brazil), Buenos Aires (Argentina), and even Caracas (Venezuela).

Every major US city has now been occupied by protesters. In Philadelphia they pitched tents at on the doorstep of City Hall opposite my office. Over a 1,000 appeared in Miami and at least 200 showed up in Atlanta. Police were in their anti-citizen posture arresting people in Denver, San Diego and Sacramento to deny public encampments. More than 1,000 showed in San Francisco and more than 5,000 appeared in Los Angeles. In Oakland, hundreds marched downtown. Over 2,000 protesters appeared in Seattle at the Westlake Park. In the middle of the country, more than 200 were arrested in Chicago as police were intent upon preventing any encampment at Grant Park. Police did the same ordering tents be removed in Trenton, New Jersey. Protesters have appeared everywhere including Des Moines, Iowa. In Boston they have set up at Dewey Square.

CONCLUSION

So while newscasters do their best to criticize the Occupy Wall Street movement that is going globally, it really DOES NOT matter what the truth is. All that matters is what they BELIEVE. We are in serious trouble economically. The entire debt structure is collapsing. Governments are going into bankruptcy at the local level. Europe is scrambling desperately trying to just bail out the banks so they can keep borrowing as usual. The jig is up! This perpetual game of borrowing forever with no intent of paying anything off is coming full circle. No nation has EVER survived such a debt crisis. Government will NOT reform or save the day because they see this as a loss of power to do so. They will fight all the way!

Governments will not abandon the primary dealing banks for they have become the new Financial Crack Dealers. The small banks that do not sell government debt, the Fed could care less about. So volatility is rising because CONFIDENCE is declining. I wish by just explaining the debt crisis nations would act to protect society. Unfortunately, they are only interested in preserving the status quo politically.

This is when we need a Cincinnatus to assume the role of an Economic Dictator to do what is right since neither political side will act. We desperately need someone with the courage to do the right thing to save us from ourselves who will not be bought by the Primary Dealers. Without such absolute power over the economy, all we will get is more argument and inaction that does not stop the wheel of fortune from turning. Our representative forms of government have become as corrupt as the Roman Republic at the time of the First Civil War. This leaves little hope for what lies ahead politically and the movement globally is showing the frustration that is rising. Without someone who knows what they are doing economically, who is willing to step up and lead, we may not last beyond the course of this next 8.6 year wave without a complete economic meltdown where ALL government debt becomes worthless wiping out countless pension funds and your future. The free markets are our only hope of survival. There seems to be no political way out short of an Economic Dictator to stand between both parties.
